THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

FOREWORD
THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE
CONSTITUTIONAL COURT
OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

Along with its existence as the guardian and custodian institution of the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945 (the Constitution of 1945), the Constitutional Court has published a book on the Constitution of 1945. Besides being an important instrument and guide book to support the smooth execution of the constitutional tasks of the Constitutional Court, the purpose of this book containing the Constitution of 1945 is also meant to enable the society to understand the Constitution of 1945 easier.

In regard to such purpose, the publication of this book containing the Constitution of 1945 has been adjusted to the basic agreements of the People's Consultative Assembly as the modifier of the Constitution when conducting the Amendment to the Constitution of 1945. As it is known, while stipulating the amendment to the Constitution of 1945, the People's Consultative Assembly has stipulated 5 (five) basic agreements, namely (1) not to amend the Preamble of the Constitution of 1945; (2) to retain the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia; (3) to reaffirm the presidential government system; (4) to incorporate the Elucidation to the Constitution of 1945 containing normative matters into the articles; and (5) to conduct the amendment by means of addenda.

The basic agreement for conducting the amendment by means of addenda gives rise to the consequence that the official text of the Constitution of 1945 consists of 5 (five) parts, namely:

- a. The Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945 (the original text);
- b. The First Amendment to the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945;
- c. The Second Amendment to the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945;

- d. The Third Amendment to the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945;
- e. The Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945.

By standing on the said basic agreements, the Constitutional Court publishes this book containing the Constitution of 1945 in its standard official text namely by containing the composition of the text of the Constitution of 1945 prior to its amendment which is followed by the text containing the result of the amendment to the Constitution of 1945 in four stages as mentioned above. Nevertheless, besides containing the official text of the Constitution of 1945, this book also contains the Constitution of 1945 composed in one manuscript. To be known, the making of the Constitution of 1945 in the said one text was initially an agreement of the Ad Hoc I Committee of the Workers Body of the People's Consultative Assembly during its session term 2001-2002.

In the said agreement, the Constitution of 1945 in the said one manuscript is not an official text of the Constitution of 1945, but rather minutes of the session of the plenary meeting of the Annual Session of the People's Consultative Assembly of the year 2002. Therefore, with the intention for the society to understand easier the Constitution of 1945 systematically, holistically, and comprehensively, this book contains the Constitution of 1945 in One Manuscript containing the material content of the articles of the text of the Constitution of 1945 which have not been amended as well as the material content of the articles as amended by the four amendments.

In line with the aforementioned intention, in order to render ease of and benefit for the public at large to understand the Constitutional Court as a guarding and custodian institution of the Constitution of 1945, this book is equipped with the Law regarding the Constitutional Court namely the one containing the Law Number 24 of the Year 2003 regarding the Constitutional Court and the Law Number 8 of the Year 2011 regarding the Amendment to the Law Number 24 of the Year 2003 regarding the Constitutional Court as composed in one manuscript.

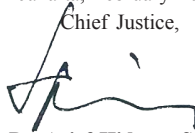

Moreover, the text has been equipped also with footnotes for provisions declared to be contrary to the Constitution of 1945 and declared to have no legal binding force by virtue of the Judgment of the Constitutional Court Number 48/PUU-IX/2011 and the Judgment of the Constitutional Court Number 49/PUU-IX/2011 dated 18 October 2011, the Judgment of the Constitutional Court Number 34/PUU-X/2012 dated 25 September 2012, and the Judgment of the Constitutional Court Number 7/PUU-XI/2013 dated 28 March 2013.

Along with the efforts of the Constitutional Court to materialize the constitutionality of Indonesia, this book is expected to render also benefit in the march towards the life of the nation and the state of Indonesia by virtue of the Constitution of 1945.

I. GENERAL

The Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945 in Article 24 affirms that the judicial power shall be independent powers in order to perform the judiciary in order to enforce law and justice. The Constitutional Court is one of the executors of the judicial power as referred to in the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945.

By virtue of Article 24C section (1) and section (2) of the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945, the Constitutional Court has the authority to review laws against the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945; to judge on authority disputes of state institutions whose authorities are granted by the Constitution of the State of the Republic of Indonesia of the Year 1945; to judge on the dissolution of a political party; to judge on the result of a general election; and to render judgment over an opinion of the DPR alleging that the President and/

This Law is an amendment to the Law Number 24 of the Year 2003 regarding the Constitutional Court. The background of the amendment to the law as such lies in several provisions which are no longer suitable with the development of the legal requirements of the society and life of constitutionalism.

Several important subject matters in the amendment to the Law Number 24 of the Year 2003 regarding the Constitutional Court, relate inter alia to the structure of the Assembly of Honor of the Constitutional Court; supervision of constitutional court justices; the term of office of the Chief Justice and the Deputy Chief Justice of the Constitutional Court, educational requirements in order to qualify for the appointment as constitutional court justice, as well as the Ethical Code and/or the Guidelines of Conduct of Justices of the Constitutional Court.
